

Style Sheet

Manuscripts for publication by AGH University of Science and Technology Press should conform to the following guidelines.

Length of the paper should not exceed 24 typed pages with figures and tables.

The running text of the body of the paper should be followed by figures and tables, drawn on separate pages; their exact placement should be indicated on the left-hand margin.

Title page should include a footnote, giving the author's affiliation.

Figures should be drawn clearly in black ink, printed or photocopied. Dense distribution of details in figures and tables should be avoided. Photographs should display sharp contrast. Figures (diagrams and photographs) and tables ought to be provided with numbers.

Mathematical equations within the text should be written in separate lines, numbered consecutively (numbers within round brackets) on the right-hand side. Greek characters must be written with using straight font, but all the variables you must sign with italic.

Reference to literature within the text should be given in square brackets [], and the bibliography should be prepared in accordance to English editorial habits.

Papers should be submitted in two copies. The second copy (with tables and figures pasted inside) is destined for the reviewer.

Summary (of 15–20 lines), keywords and title should be submitted in both Polish and English. Polish lingual version is expected to be directly translated from the English text.

For computer edited texts, please include a disc with a text file, giving the editor or programme used (preferably Word). Illustrations should be edited in CorelDraw (CDR), DrawPerfect (WPG) or in any other vector graphics form.

Authors using Word are requested to emply, as far as possible, text form of mathematical symbols leaving graphic form for the equations longer than single line. The resolution of drawings and photographs given should be at least 300 dpi; preferably they should be submitted as separate files (TIF, PCX).

Papers destined to print are supposed to be sent to Secretaries or members of Editorial Committee.
